Description: On the occasion of 201st year of Birth of Pandit Ishwar Chandra Bandhyopadhyay, popularly known as Vidyasagar, the most eminent scholar, author, reformer of nineteenth century Bengal, and Principal of Sanskrit College in those days, K.K.Das College arranged a State Level webinar on 26th September 2021 to observe his birthday, through Google Meet and Youtube platform. The literary society of the college in collaboration with IQAC hosted the event.

The webinar started at 11am with the keynote address by Prof. Pabitra Sarkar, former Vice Chancellor of RabindraBharati University, and a renowned scholar of Linguistics. This Was followed by the speech by Amit Dey, ASHUTOSH chair Prof. of Dept. of History, University of Calcutta. He highlighted the life of Vidyasagar in the context of Nineteenth Century Bengal and the scenario of society at that time.

Next speaker was SanatNaskar, Professor of Dept. of Bengali Language and Literature, University of Calcutta. His area of discussion focused on Vidyasagar as an administrator and planning persona upon Education policy in those days.

Both the sessions included students and teachers of not only K.K. Das college, but from other colleges also. This was a highly knowledgeable session, as the speakers were eminent professors in their area, and thus the webinar was a grand success with respectable dignity of the occasion.
