Description:

The Student's Union of K. K. Das College, Kolkata has always been enthusiastic in taking the initiative of organizing the Independence Day in our College. In 2021, keeping in mind the Covid a protocol, the glorious 75th Independence Day was celebrated at our College Campus. The programme started with hoisting our national flag by our respected Principal Sir followed by the National Anthem. Principal Sir had also enriched us all with his speech. Teachers and students were also present. They had paid there homage to the freedom fighters, by offering flowers in the flag altar. Saswata Aich of English department in Semester-V and Arnab Mondal of B.A General semester-V made the celebration more meaningful by their song. The programme is also available in the Youtube platform. SangeetaMallik of (Stream) sent video of a patriotic song and (name) sent video of her dance as a tribute to our motherland.

Beside the cultural programmes, our college also organized a Quiz competition for the students. The questions were from the great history of our motherland. Around 60 students participated in the quiz competition and were found to be really excited to answer the questions asked. Prof. Sukumar Sadhukhan, Prof. Mohan Bir Subba, Prof. Nasima Munshi, Prof. Sayan Kumar Gupta conducted the quiz competition.
